On motion, E. J. Fountain was elected president for the ensuing year. In a few well chosen words, Mr. Fountain thanked the directors for the honor conferred on him. He asked the hearty support of the members of the club and promised in return to devote his best efforts to constructive work in behalf of Bryan and Brazos County.

On motion of M. E. Wallace, he following resolution was passed unanimously:

"Resolved, That we, the directors of the Bryan Commercial Club, find it both a duty and a pleasure to express our cordial appreciation of the services, for the past twelve months, of our retiring president, A. W. Wilkerson. We recognize the promptness, faithfulness, impartiality, efficiency and courtesy of Mr. Wilkerson as our president, and we extend our thanks and good wishes to him for the services so kindly rendered."

On motion, A. M. Waldrop was elected vice president for the new year.

The question of office room for the new year was brought up and on motion was referred to the president and secretary for action.

On motion of J. T. Maloney, the secretary was instructed to ascertain the requirements for free mail delivery for Bryan.
